CALL TO ORDER

The meeting was called to order by acting chair, Thushan Amarasiriwardena, after a brief explanation of changes to the board’s structure. Mr. Amarasiriwardena updated the board about the reversion of the structure to statutes outlined in the Student Body Constitution, which allow for seven popularly-elected students, the seven media heads and the student body president as voting members, with the student body treasurer as a non-voting member. Mr. Amarasiriwardena also expressed an interest amongst board members and members of the administration, student government and the student media in keeping professional, academic and appointed students on the board in an advisory capacity.

Executive Session

The Student Media Advisory Board adjourned into executive session to discuss matter of litigation, potential litigation or personnel.

1. Nubian Message

Bradley Wilson provided a brief explanation of the guidelines of executive session. Members of the board agreed that all advisors, student academic and professional and the managing editor of the Nubian Message should be allowed to stay in executive session. The chair made a motion to adjourn to executive session, keeping Ms. Houston and advisors. The motion was seconded and passed by a majority vote of the board.

Motion The board resumed open session and a motion was put forth by the secretary, based on the discussions in executive session. The motion set up explicit goals to be met by the Nubian Message:

1. That the paper must be published on time each week;
2. There can be no violations of intellectual property right rules.
3. If there are disagreements on the definition of violations or possible violations, the editors of the Nubian Message will seek third party counsel from the Student Media’s lawyer, Pam Gerace.
4. The staff of the Nubian Message will undergo a day-long training before the start of the spring semester.
5. There must be a planned effort to recruit presented at the next meeting of the board.
6. At the February meeting, board members will re-evaluate progress towards these goals, with the understanding that if they are not all met, there will be a vote of termination for the editor. This condition is made with the understanding that there will be no plagiarism violations.
7. There must be a weekly meeting between editor and adviser.
8. The requirements for minimum GPA, full-time student status and working hours will be temporarily waived, to be readdressed at the February meeting.
9. Miranda Houston, managing editor of the Nubian Message, can be present at all subsequent Student Media board meetings.
The motion was seconded and passed by a majority vote of the board.
